Article by Becky Holm

The following is a summarized piece. Full article is available for reading at your local SORB office.

Job Coach, Brandi Bellinger, Kevin and General Manager Barry Robinson

Kevin, an individual experiencing autism, hasn't always found being a team member easy. With the support of his job coach, Brandi Bellinger, and the encouragement from his co-workers at AmeriTitle, Kevin thrives in the work environment.

“I do things for them and I’m an asset to the company ... I like being a part of a team where I feel like I’m contributing something important.”
- Kevin

Kevin was hired to conduct filing, light janitorial activities, assist with mailings, managing office equipment such as copy machines, and restocking refreshments for both co-workers and clients.

He has learned to prioritize his task list and is now comfortable with taking the initiative in starting projects that help those around him.

“He’s always here on time and a joy to be around,” General Manager Barry Robinson said, “He’s just a phenomenal employee.”
